GREETINGS FROM THE DEAN OF WOMEN

A sincere welcome to Queens-Chicora College is extended to all new students, Freshmen and upper-classmen alike. The day you were born there was formed in the hearts and minds of your Mothers and Fathers a dream for you, and your college life will be a big part of that dream—your college life which is being planned with the goal of being well-rounded for you. The Academic Faculty will provide for your sound scholarship. And, many and varied student activities and social functions will be directed and sponsored for your happiness, comfort, and development.

You will have great opportunities for development by the increase of your knowledge, the training of your powers of thought, the establishing of your character, and the making of friends from whom you may learn and to whose happiness you may contribute.

The Faculty of Queens-Chicora College wish to become your friends and are happy to cast in their services in helping to make come true the college-part of the big dream of your Mothers and Fathers for you.

VIRGINIA MILLER AGNEW,
Dean of Women.

J. M. GODARD
Dean of Instruction

GREETINGS FROM THE DEAN OF INSTRUCTION

Real knowledge of basic truth is not easy to obtain. Many barriers stand in the way of achieving an understanding of the world in which we live. We who teach you hope that you may overcome these barriers and may leave us with a wholesome awareness of the significance of life. We hope that you will know that the learning of facts is only a first small step toward learning the meaning of those facts and that your mind may be ever eager to inquire into the nature of truth. If this is your ambition, there is no limit to the growth that you may achieve in these halls.

J. M. GODARD,
Dean of Instruction.

ATTENDANCE UPON CLASS AND OTHER COLLEGE EXERCISES

A new system of class attendance is being put into effect this year. This new system will necessitate the use of good judgment on the part of each student.

1. Absences are recorded from the first day upon which classes meet. Students who register late incur class cuts from the first day of class meetings.

2. Absences from classes immediately preceding or immediately following a holiday or a vacation are not permitted.

3. Five absences per semester are allowed for each three-semester hour course. Four absences are allowed for each two-semester hour course. Absences in excess of this number will result in the loss of quality points as follows: First excess cut: loss of one quality point. Second excess cut: loss of two additional quality points. Third excess cut: loss of three additional quality points. Fourth excess cut: loss of three additional quality points. Fifth excess cut: partial loss of course credit. Since 124 quality points are required for graduation, excess absences should be avoided. Students should be careful to save these absences for unavoidable occasions, such as illness or other emergencies.

4. Students who have been reported as failing the previous quarter shall not be allowed any absences except for definite illness.

5. Absence from an announced test is recorded as a double absence.

6. Three tardies are recorded as an absence.

7. All members of the Faculty and the Student Body are expected to attend Chapel exercises.

8. Laboratories: No cuts are allowed in Laboratory sections. Absences caused by serious illness must be made up immediately. No shifts are permitted in the Home Economics Department. In the case of other laboratories, one shift may be made provided it is made up within the week of the shift.

QUALITY POINT SYSTEM

For graduation one must have 124 semester hours and 124 quality points. Three quality points are awarded for every semester hour of "Distinction" grade, two quality points for each hour of "Merit" grade, one quality point for each hour of "High Pass" grade, no quality points for "Low Pass" grades, and one quality point is subtracted for each semester hour of failure.

For Sophomore Class standing a student must have 24 semester hours and 12 quality points; for Junior Class standing a student must have 54 semester hours and 30 quality points; for Senior Class standing a student must have 86 semester hours and 51 quality points.

LIBRARY RULES

I. The Library is a place for research and reading; group conversations are not permitted. Points will be given for any such misconduct.

II. The cards for Reserve books must be signed with the borrower's own name and returned by her personally to the desk.

III. Reserve books registered out for overnight must be returned to the Charging Desk before 8:30 the next morning. A fine of 5c per hour is imposed for failure to return such books to the Library. Week-end books must be returned by 9 A.M. on Monday.

IV. Neither Day Students nor Boarders may check books out for overnight until 12 o'clock noon.

V. Magazines and newspapers are not to be taken from the racks and are not to be clipped. Bound magazines are not to be taken from the Library under any condition.

VI. A student taking a Reserve book to class (at the request of a teacher) must sign her own name to the Reserve card and be responsible for the return of this book to the Desk.

VII. The Library is open from 8 A.M. to 1 P.M.; from 1:30 to 5:00 P.M.; and from 7-9:30 P.M. The afternoon hour for closing on Saturday is 3 P.M. Day Students will conform to this regulation and not ask permission to use the Library during the lunch hour.

VIII. Serious Library offenses will be under the jurisdiction of the Executive Board of Student Government.

A "Busy" may be broken only with the permission of a Council member, who will accompany the student to the room and remove the sign before that student may enter the room. Breaking a "Busy" or violation of the use of a "Busy" carries the penalty of one week's campus. "Busy" signs must be removed when the student leaves the room. "Busy" signs must be removed at the light bell of the individual student. No one may use a "Busy" sign on Sundays.

XV. If any student persists in violating the law and spirit of the College after reprimands, that student may be asked to withdraw from the College.

XVI. The final authority in the matters of government lies with the President of the College.

XVII. Out-going Senior Council Members, when retiring at the end of a full term, shall for the remainder of the academic year be given leniency with regard to the minor rules of the College. Violation of the serious rules of the College will be under the jurisdiction of the Council.

QUEENS-CHICORA DECORUM

The assets of good citizenship and the advantages of an education are recognized at Queens-Chicora College. We have social customs which are the result of our traditions; therefore, we ask your co-operation in observing them. Set a high personal social standard for yourself.

When one is going to town a costume of appropriate street clothes is not complete without a hat.

Socks are not worn to town, nor are they worn anywhere after 6:00 P.M. Also, since the acceptable tennis costume does not call for "halters," therefore, they are never appropriate for campus wear.

Talking from dormitory windows does not conform with standards of the campus.

For the appearance of the campus waste receptacles should receive discarded paper cups, etc.

One's conduct in the dining room is very indicative of breeding—we always are courteous to servants.

Queens-Chicora College is a friendly place; make a wide circle of friends among both Faculty and students. By doing your part many good times may be shared and happiness in your college career attained.

CAMPUS REGULATIONS

It is the earnest desire of the Student Government Association of Queens-Chicora College to meet the needs of the entire group of students and to assist them in their adjustment to the conditions of college life. The social program and the extra-curricular activities of this college are all designed to further this end and to make life on the campus as varied and as full as is consistent with the major purposes of coming to college. With this end in view, there are planned during the college year entertainments which will furnish the students opportunities for social enjoyment and the development of class and college spirit.

A summary of the major regulations which guide the campus and dormitory life of the Queens-Chicora students is given here. At the beginning of the college year, a selected group of students will give a detailed training course in these matters for the benefit of all new students.

GENERAL RULES

Engagements

No student may have a social engagement or leave the campus on Monday night after 6:30 o'clock. Monday is closed night.

Several formal dinners are held each year in the dining room. On these nights, the campus will be closed from 5:30 until after the entertainment of the evening.

Study Hall Cuts are based upon scholarship and good citizenship. These may be used at the discretion of the student for callers, picture shows, concerts, in town, visits or dinners in town, social functions at one of the sorority houses. Students who have no study hall cuts and wish to be a member of the Community Concert, the Charlotte Symphonic Organization, or the Little Theater may make special arrangements with the Dean of Women and President of the Boarding Student Council to attend these evening concerts, provided the individual student will in each instance observe a study hall in the afternoon. Attendance at class entertainments, lectures, or recitals in the College Auditorium will not count as a Study Hall Cut.

Study Hall Cuts, based on scholastic averages, will be allowed as follows:

(No Study Hall Cuts are allowed to any students who are conditioning or failing any subjects.)

I. Seniors:

A. Having 30 quality points with no grade below "merit"—four evenings, accompanied by a young man "up-town" two of these evenings.

B. Having 24 quality points with no grade below "high pass"—three evenings, accompanied by a young man "up-town" one of these evenings.

C. Having 15 quality points with no grade below "passing"—two evenings, accompanied by a young man "up-town" one evening.

D. Having 9 quality points with no grade below "passing"—one evening, which may be "up-town" accompanied by a young man.

II. Juniors:

A. Having 30 quality points with no grade below "merit"—three evenings, may be accompanied by a young man "up-town" one evening.

B. Having 24 quality points with no grade below "high pass"—two evenings; may be accompanied by a young man "up-town" one evening.
C. Having 15 quality points with no grade below "passing"—one evening; may be accompanied by a young man "up-town."

III. Sophomores:
A. Having 30 quality points with no grade below "merit"—two evenings; may be "up-town" in the evenings only when accompanied by a Junior or Senior approved chaperon.
B. Having 24 quality points with no grade below "high pass"—two evenings.
C. Having 15 quality points with no grade below "passing"—one evening.

IV. Freshmen:
A. Having 30 quality points with no grade below "merit"—one evening. May go "up-town" in the evening only when accompanied by a Junior or Senior approved chaperon.
B. Having 24 quality points with no grade below "high pass"—one evening.

(The scholastic averages by which the Study Hall Cuts are governed are computed from the students' grades on work done the previous semester. No Freshman, therefore, receives Study Hall Cuts during the first quarter except by special permission of the Dean of Women.)

WEEK-ENDS

1. General permission for week-end absences must be mailed by the parents directly to the Dean of Women. All students, except Seniors, must have the permission for a week-end granted by the Dean during her office hours from 9:00 to 12:00.

2. Week-end privileges may be granted as follows:

a. Seniors—No restrictions.
b. Juniors—Three week-ends a month.
c. Sophomores—Two week-ends a month.
d. Freshmen—One week-end a month.

These privileges will be withheld in the case of students who demonstrate poor citizenship or poor scholarship.

Both parents and students are asked to cooperate with the College in the use of these privileges, particularly in the cases of underclassmen, since it has been found that constant absence from the College over the week-ends has a marked effect upon the grades and the college life of the student. If an underclassman requests extra week-end absences, that student will be requested to remain on the campus during the afternoons of the week following her return.

3. The penalty of two Majors will be given to a student taking more than the allotted number of week-ends. Also, this student will be denied the privilege of taking one of the week-ends due her the following month.

BOOK IV

Traditions

TRADITIONS

The Freshman and Junior Classes are sister classes, while the Sophomores and Seniors stand united at all times in events demanding class spirit. Generally, some social courtesies are rendered to upper-class girls by lower-classmen.

Queens-Chicora College colors are light blue and dark blue, and our motto, "Non ministrari sed ministrare."

Senior Week

Each year, beginning on the first Monday following the return from Spring Holidays, SENIOR WEEK is observed, a time when Seniors as a class receive unique recognition. During that week, the Seniors wear the Senior jackets, special insignia of the class, and present their will, history, prophecy, and poem at the Student Chapel on Wednesday. Each class entertains the Seniors, the Juniors entertaining with Junior-Senior on Friday evening. The Kiwanis Club entertains the Seniors at luncheon on Thursday.

Class Recognition Day

On the afternoon preceding Commencement Exercises, the Faculty and students hold their traditional Class Recognition Exercises in front of Burwell Hall. At this time there is an academic procession, the Juniors present the daisy chain, and receive the Senior caps and gowns. The Seniors present a gift to the College. Salutatorian and Valedictorian addresses are also delivered at this service.

An outstanding part of the exercises is the changing of class colors. At Queens-Chicora College, only the Seniors are privileged to use as class colors Light Blue and Dark Blue, the colors of their Alma Mater. Either Light Blue or Dark Blue features in the colors of each class, each class retaining the Blue of her Freshman year throughout the four years of college, and sister classes being linked by the same shade of Blue. Rose is traditionally the other color for the Junior Class; White for the Sophomore Class, and Yellow for the Freshman Class. These three colors are changed at Class Recognition Exercises, with the Seniors passing to the Juniors and leaving for the incoming Freshman the same shade of Blue—that being the shade that is not a part of the Junior colors—and returning to the College the other Blue in the Senior colors.

Class Colors For 1938-1939

Seniors—Light Blue and Dark Blue.

Juniors—Dark Blue and Rose.

Sophomores—Light Blue and White.

Freshmen—Dark Blue and Yellow.

Seniors wear their caps and gowns and act as ushers on May Day.

Juniors serve at the Alumnae Banquet.

"O Mother Dear, Jerusalem," and "Ancient of Days," are always sung as the Processional and Recessional at the Baccalaureate Sermon.

The Sophomores entertain the Seniors.

The Senior Class, upon leaving, always leaves some gift to the College.

The Sophomores assist in decoration of the stage during Commencement Exercises.

COLLEGE SONGS AND YELLS

We urge every new girl to learn these songs and yells as soon as possible so she may be able to enter into the "Queens Spirit" as soon as she arrives on the campus.

Alma Mater

I

Deep within the waving forest,
Far from bustling town,
Stands our noble Alma Mater;
Proudly looks she down.

Chorus:

Sing her praises, lift her chorus
Over hill and dale!
Hail to thee, our Alma Mater!
Queens-Chicora, hail.

II

Deep among the fragrant pine trees
Is our College true,
There our noble Alma Mater
Proudly stands in view.

Our Mother and Our Queen

I

Oh time of happiness and youth,
Of joyful consecration,
Of holy zeal for faith and truth,
And love-born inspiration
When earth is clad in vernal hue,
The skies in golden sheen—
We raise our hymn of joy to you,
Our Mother and our Queen.

II

You lead from life's uncertain dawn
To glorious days your daughters,
In golden pictures you have drawn
The floods of living waters.
And round thy banner, Blue and Blue,
A faithful host is seen,
True to their honor, true to you,
Our Mother and our Queen.

III

Though roseclad hope may open wide
  The future's golden portal,
And love shall crown—a happy bride—
  Our brows with wreaths immortal;
Though all our dreams are coming true,
  Yet naught our hearts can wean,
Nor turn our grateful thoughts from you,
  Our Mother and our Queen.

IV

To grief and joy—as years go past—
  Points fate's unerring finger;
But changeless shall, while life will last,
  Your blessings with us linger,
Unfaltering love, like morning dew,
  Shall keep your memory green—
Our lodestar bright, we gaze on you—
  Our Mother and our Queen.

Make way and hail, here comes the Q.-C. girls,
Pouring their dauntless spirit forth in song,
Wake up girls and answer the call,
Queens girls will lead them all.
We've got the grit that's gonna pull us through,
And all the pep that we will show to you,
We'll go forth and face the world today,
  Q.-C., Q.-C., Q.-C.

Q.-C., Q.-C., you're a wonder,
And when you are old and grey
We will all say yes by thunder,
You were some school in our day.

Dear Queens-Chicora College

Dear Queens-Chicora College,
To you our banners we raise,
To you our Alma Mater,
We lift our songs in praise.
With your lofty standards above us,
Your noble ideals in our hearts,
We can go forth into victory
And play in our manner, small parts.
So here's to you—Queens-Chicora,

And in the years to be
May you inspire in the hearts of girls
The will for victory.

(Tune is that of the Senior Song of the Class of 1936.)

Dear Q.-C.

Dear Q.-C., we'll be loyal and true,
To the end we will fight just for you.
We'll play fair, we'll play square all the while,
And we'll take each defeat with a smile.
If we win you may count on the Blues
To be friendly with those who lose;
We will stand by our school to the end,
And we'll always be her truest, bluest friend.

Commencement Hymn

I

O Mother dear, Jerusalem,
When shall I come to thee?
When shall my sorrows have an end?
The joys, when shall I see?

II

O happy harbor of the saints!
O sweet and pleasant soil!
In thee no sorrow may be found,
No grief, no care, no toil.

III

Thy walls are made of precious stones,
Thy bulwarks diamonds square;
Thy gates are of bright orient pearls,
Exceeding rich and rare.

IV

Thy turrets and thy pinnacles
With carbuncles do shine;
Thy very streets are paved with gold,
Surpassing clear and fine.

V

Thy gardens and thy gallant walks
Continually are green,
There grows such sweet and pleasant flowers
As nowhere else are seen.

VI

Quiet through the streets, with silver round
  The flood of life doth flow;
Upon whose banks on every side
  The wood of life doth grow.

Radio Hymn

I

With reverent love we sing to thee,
Our hearts o'er flow with loyal praise.
Dear Queens-Chicora, ever be
Our guard and shield of college days.
Let echoes of thy spirit ring
As through the years thy song we sing.

II

Thy guiding standards lead us on
To paths of wisdom, faith, and truth;
Bequeathed to us by daughters gone,
And giving strength to present youth,
Our glorious hymn of love we raise
To sing our Alma Mater's praise.
